A large number of the best state rooms of the Belle Lee have been engaged for the round trip. Mr. Kennedy, her agent, will doubtthe eye of the reader.

Quite a number of passengers for the Mardi-Gras festivities arrived home by rail to-day from Louisville and Cincinnati and took pasrage on the Belle Lee. The ducal contract with the Great Republic read as follows: "If the boat is delayed ten hours otherwise than by the orders of the duke, he will be at liberty to give her up, paying only for the time used."

The United States supervising inspectors, now in session in Washington city, have resolved that all steam-recording gauges, as also fire extinguishers, must be guaranteed by the agents or makers thereof, for one year, and if they are unwilling to do so, the local inspectors are not required to place them on board of steamers.

The value of the boats and cargoes in the gorge at Columbus is estimated at from two and a half to five millions of dollars. The ducal party left here at 10:30 this morn ing on the James Howard, accompanied by several of our leading citizens and a party of ladies and gentlemen from Louisville. costs his highness something like $2000 a day for his boat ride. The fine passenger steamer Thomas H. Allen, Captain Eugene Smith, leaves this even-ing at five o'clock for Pine Bluff, Little Rock and all way points on the Arkansas river.

Mr. Pat Morrison and Billy Willis are clerks. The fine and fleet passenger steamer Bello Lee, in command of J. F. Hicks, leaves this evening at four o'clock, positively, for New Orleans and all way landings. The Belle Lee has always been a favorite in the trade, hav-ing large and splendid staterooms, with her tables always supplied with all the delicacies that the market affords. John S. Sullivan is her chief secretary.

Yesterday's St. Louis Republican despairs

Yesterday's St. Louis Republican despairs of all hope of an early resumption of navigation, and says:

The canal through the ice-gorge, by which communication with East St. Louis and its ten railroad lines is kept up, was occupied by the ferry boats East St. Louis and U. H. Mulli-ken, which crafts made regular trips during the day, transferring hundreds of wagons and perhaps thousands of people. The effort to clear the harbor of ice has been abandoned for the present. Much apprehension is felt among the steambeathent for the safety of their property when the gorge begins to move. tion, and says:
